ENGAGEMENT TOOL: SURVEY TOOL

Backyard Hen Survey

Are you in favour of the City of Greater Sudbury allowing backyard hens in residential areas?

- Yes: 1999
- No: 1076
- Unsure: 114

What do you feel is the maximum number of hens that a resident should be allowed to keep?

- 1-5: 107 (5.4%)
- 5-10: 601 (30.2%)
- 10-15: 49 (2.5%)
- 15-20: 706 (35.4%)
- 20-25: 529 (26.6%)
- 25+: 0

Question options
- Yes
- No
- Unsure

(3189 responses, 0 skipped)
If any, what are your primary concerns with the City allowing backyard hens in residential zone (check all that apply)?

- Noise
- Odour
- Illness/Disease
- Visual esthetics/appearance
- Safety
- Nuisance/Predatory animals (bears, racoons, etc)
- Other
- None

What is the current zoning of your property?

- Residential
- Agricultural
- Rural
- Unsure

(3189 responses, 0 skipped)
If your neighbour wanted to have hens, would you want to be notified?

- Yes: 1539 (49.1%)
- No: 1355 (43.2%)
- Unsure: 240 (7.7%)

If the City were to allow backyard hens, would you want the City to (select all that apply):

- Regulate the number of hens: 2354
- Set minimum lot size to keep backyard hens: 1831
- Establish setbacks (distance coop must be set back from property line) from neighbours: 1904
- Implement permit and application process: 1452
- Establish inspection process for initial set up and approval: 1618
- No regulations: 243
- Other: 101

Optional question (3134 responses, 55 skipped)
Are you a resident of Greater Sudbury?

![Pie chart showing 3143 (98.6%) Yes and 46 (1.4%) No]

Question options
- Yes
- No

(3189 responses, 0 skipped)

If permitted, would you choose to own backyard hens?

![Bar chart showing 1192 Yes, 1375 No, and 608 Unsure]

Question options
- Yes
- No
- Unsure

Optional question (3189 responses, 0 skipped)