am not in support of the new casino arena that is under construction, it will would force people to gamble Amalgamation did not work and is not helping the outlying communities at all. Something has to be done about that. Services that we (in the outskirts and outlying areas) had before the amalgamation were much better and we had better services, now they are are much worse than they were before. Something should be done about amalgamation is not working, reconsider it - go back to original model

I think that the city should hurry up with the casino so more young people will have jobs and tourism will increase. Don't worry about destroying downtown to build new building, rather make homes for the homeless
I think that the politicians don't think long term about the life of the city; which is downtown. We need to focus our efforts to create community, foster culture and create business downtown. Downtown is were long term
I think the biggest thing is the complaints with the downtown business association. It's very discouraging. I agree with the decision to move everything form downtown; especially since there is noting being done
I think the city should be more cleaner and more accountability.
I think the website is very poor, the city website needs a lot of improvement; I would rate it the lowest, a zero if I could. Sudbury.com is a newspaper website and tis superior to the city's. I'd like someone it keep it current with city news. Recently there was a hydro down issue or a big issue and there was no indication on the city website that anything was happening. It never changes except to put new committee members names up. Its out of date and hard to navigate. This is the first place people go and should be able to go but right now I wouldn't even promote it. But the 311 service is excellent. About city recreation services for seniors - they're appalling. The city depends on the YMCA and the Y is woefully underserved and the footprint, meaning the pool, is far too small and needs money and attention; and fundraising, for the pool not the Symphony.
